From the Inside Flap

In today's volatile market, traditional price charts alone may not be able to provide the information you need to make optimal trading decisions. Financial experts Mark Helweg and David Stendahl recognize this problem and have developed two innovative market analysis tools-Value Charts and Price Action Profile-that will allow you to trade the stock, bond, currency, and futures markets with poise and confidence.

Dynamic Trading Indicators: Winning with Value Charts and Price Action Profile provides a comprehensive introduction to these two powerful and exciting new technical indicators and shows you how to develop systems and trading programs that implement them.

Through accessible language and real-world examples, this book will teach you how to read Value Charts and benefit from their quantifiable market insights. Your trading skills and profits will increase as you use Value Charts to measure the value of any given market and begin to buy into it at undervalued or oversold price levels. You'll also learn how to use Value Charts in tandem with Price Action Profile to determine the degree to which a market is overvalued (overbought) or undervalued (oversold).

After explaining the basics of Value Charts and Price Action Profile, Dynamic Trading Indicators moves ahead and explores the everyday uses of these market analysis tools in regard to your own trading activities. Practical and informative chapters show you how to:

- * Identify low-risk trading opportunities in numerous markets with Value Charts and Price Action Profile
- * Improve your overall trading strategy by integrating Value Charts and Price Action Profile with other technical indicators
- * Create trading systems by utilizing a whole new set of quantifiable values that stem from Value Charts and Price Action Profile
- * Develop and improve pattern recognition trading strategies

* Track thousands of markets and identify good buying or selling opportunities

* Minimize market risk and systemic risk when accumulating stock

Not all charting techniques are created equal. Dynamic Trading Indicators proves this with the introduction of Value Charts and Price Action Profile. Take this opportunity to understand two of the most revolutionary trading indicators currently available and unlock the door to unlimited profits.

Very Good Indicator

By J. Richardson

This book is well written. The indicators are clearly explained. The Value Charts indicator alone will not help you trade your way to riches but it can help put the odds on your side.

Very interesting approach

By John Doe

This is a good book and value charts are a very interesting new approach. I slightly modified it and I get really outstanding results. I highly recommend this book to everyone who realizes that conventional indicators such as RSI, Williams, MACD and all the others just don't cut it anymore.

Best Indicator Out There

By Chris

Value Charts seems to be one of the better, if the the best indicator out there. This book explains how to calculate a value chart and goes into great detail with many examples.
