Beauties in Paradise

By Grady Harp

Howard Roffman has long been respected for his books that feature the extraordinarily handsome and sensuous models from the famous organization called Bel Ami. For this project Roffman left his San Francisco headquarters and set out for a shooting on the isle of Bali, taking with him four amazingly striking lads - gymnast Adam Archuleta, racing enthusiast Andre Boleyn, the smart and endowed Jack Harrer and the new Czech model Kevin Warhol. Lukas Ridgeston served as the official videographer.

What Roffman celebrates here is the beauty of the land and the atmosphere of Bali and places his models in this scenic paradise where a lot of things happen - surfing, sightseeing, swimming, involvement with the island animals, and of course lots of preening and interaction with each other. There is an inherent innocence in the postures of these young men and Roffman captures that quality, making the very intimate scenes sensuous and fresh. As with all of Roffman's collections, this set of images honors the transcendent beauty of youth - playful, longing, tender, and romantic. Grady Harp, September 12

Great for you, maybe.

By Sam Molloy

I love the cover shot but all the pages seem to be couples. That's fine, they look good, if terribly young. I'll give this to some young couple and hang up my Bel Ami calendar.
