About the Author

Since their founding in 1850, the Sisters of Notre Dame have embraced religious faith formation and identity as part of their congregation's ministry. They authored Christ Our Life to extend theirr commitment to pass on the Catholic faith and through this new edition continue to provide solid doctrine, scripture, and tradition—with Jesus as the heart of every lesson.

The 2009 edition of Christ Our Life, grades 1–8, offers the original spiral curriculum first developed in 1973—a model that others imitate because it insures that fundamentals of our faith are taught and reinforced at all grades. Students and teachers will benefit from the extensive teacher preparation and resources. Christ Our Life nurtures catechists' own faith as they prepare their lessons using in-depth preparation pages that precede every lesson.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Welcome to Christ Our Life

Since 1973, Christ Our Life has taught children that Jesus is the one around whom each of our lives is centered. This thoroughly revised edition encourages prayer and guides children to a deeper personal relationship with Christ. It teaches them how to live out their faith in their daily lives and in communion with the Church. Based on a spiral curriculum, it integrates Scripture, Catholic doctrine and Tradition, and the Church's social teachings into each lesson. Christ Our Life empowers teachers and parents to grow in their own faith as they pass on to children the love we find in Jesus.

Spiral Curriculum

To ensure consistent progress and development, the Christ Our Life series employs the spiral curriculum, originally introduced by Loyola Press in 1973. The program for each grade level builds upon previous ones, following a pattern of continuous growth in depth and scope.

At the heart of the Christ Our Life program is a harmonious integration of Scripture, tradition, and action. In the spiral curriculum, Scripture is centered between the four fundamental themes of the Catechism of the Catholic Church: Creed, Sacraments, Morality, and Prayer. In addition, Catholic social teachings are woven into each chapter to encourage active participation in the faith.

Getting Ready

Two teacher-preparation pages introduce the background information and preparation steps for each chapter. The preparation begins with the Faith Focus, which provides the theme of the lesson. Reflecting on the Faith Experience encompasses a consistent three-step preparation process—Listening, Reflecting, Responding.

- Listening: A Scripture passage related to the Faith Focus invites the catechist to listen to God's Word.
- Reflecting: A reflection on the theme provides background information and links the Faith Focus to the catechist's own faith life.
- Responding: A prayer starter relates the chapter theme to the catechist's role and invites a personal response to the Faith Focus of the lesson.

Preparing for the Faith Experience provides an overview of the themes for the lesson, as well as additional information to make lesson preparation easier.

- Multiple references to Scripture, the Catechism, and other resources provide background reading recommendations.
- Catholic Social Teaching themes are integrated throughout the program.
- Bulletin-board ideas and images are suggested for each chapter.

Three-Step Teaching Method

A three-step teaching method—Centering, Sharing, Acting—provides the children with routine and repetition to aid in understanding the content and learning to pray.

Step-by-step directions clearly show the progression of each step in the chapter. These numbered steps guide new and experienced catechists through the chapter.

Lesson activities focus on the three-step teaching method—Centering, Sharing, Acting.
