INTRODUCTIONS (THIRTY DAYS BOOK 1) BY ESTHER HARSHOM PDF

When professional Dominatrix Amanda Scott gets an offer from the wealthy and reclusive Ellison sisters, she's sceptical -- but when she hears their offer, she finds it extremely hard to turn down. They want to hire her to train them a submissive man, from scratch, with only thirty days to do it. She finds a promising candidate in Paul McClendon, a local artist, but can she convince him to take up the offer? And, more importantly, how will he cope once she has her claws in him?

THIRTY DAYS charts the progression of one ordinary, vanilla man into a perfect submissive under the hands of a highly-skilled Dominant, as he learns just what it was that was missing in his previous life.

'I have something to show you.'

She was already standing, and gestured for him to follow. She led him down and out into the hallway, then through to a nondescript door. Unlike the others in the house, this one had a large lock on it. 'Can't be too careful,' Amanda said as she fished out a bundle of keys, selected a thin shard of silver, and then opened it up.

Blackness stared back at them. She raised a hand, gesturing for him to lead the way.

'You're lucky,' she said with a grin. 'Most men don't get to see this place standing up.'

A small flight of stairs led them down into the darkness. She pressed one finger against a light switch and flicked, bathing the basement in a soft light. Having expected better illumination, he found himself squinting into the room. Slowly, shapes began to form in the darkness.

A large X, pressed against the back wall.

In the corner of the room, a metal box that gradually gave way into a series of sturdy-looking bars.

What seemed to be a low sort of pommel horse, complete with a large number of eyehooks dotted along its sides.

On the walls, a variety of chains and leather straps in all shapes and sizes.

Next to him, Amanda was smiling broadly. 'You want to know what you'll be doing for a month?,' she said. 'This is my playroom. This is what you'll be calling home.'
