Review

"An excellent and concise history of this important period."--Joshua Rosenbloom, University of Kansas

"Soon to be the definitive introduction to the history of the European economy between the wars. The book incorporates the most recent research and strikes just the right balance between incisiveness and detail. No student will want to be without it."--Barry Eichengreen, University of California, Berkeley

"I was most impressed by this. It synthesizes a huge range of material in an interesting way, has a very clear structure, lots of useful data, and is of manageable length ... I would certainly strongly recommend it to students."--Jim Tomlinson, Brunel University
