By Dianne M. Danz

This is absolutely one of the best jazz arrangement songbooks I've ever had - and I have a LOT of them. There are many songs I've never heard before, and that's rare for me, since I do collect this kind of music. It's all terrific. I've been laid up with a broken patella, and I can't tell you how much I've enjoyed entertaining myself on the piano with this music. (I even learned how to use the pedal with my left foot.) Thanks to whoever put it together and to Amazon for making it available.

Wonderful collection of great standards.

By Linda E. Flynn

This seems to be a great collection of standards. I am a vocalist and gave this book as a gift to my keyboardist, and he is delighted with it.

A good purchase! Buy this book now

By Jerry Angel

I bought the whole collection. But I have failed at learning to play the keyboard with them. I had high hopes. But I have no regrets because I will get around to enjoying them I hope. At least using the melody line to practice singing. They will stay fresh for years and I will use them at some point. Go ahead and order everyone of the Great American Songbook books for sure. Though they have one that is Country. I bought that one also. I got a discount on that since it had some marks on it. I wouldn't recommend that one. That isn't the Great American Songbook. Country? No way. They pushed it on that one. I say put a new cover on that one. Call it Golden Country. Anything else. It is the odd book out. But go for it!
