My children love this book!

By J. Theriault

The pictures in this book are amazing and my children love this book. They have never once been scared by it. My 2 year old asks for this to be read 3-4 times daily. My children understand that the little girl in the book is imagining real characters instead of the trick-or-treaters coming to her door (which in the end it makes it quite clear that they are just children dressed up). This book is a hit and my children love the illustrations. They are not scared of owls, "real live dead people", ghosts, dinosaurs, or any other characters in the book. If you take your children trick-or-treating they see far scarier halloween costumes and decorations in person. If you don't like Halloween, then don't buy this book.

Who Will Haunt My House On Halloween?

By Drew

It is nearly Halloween, and I just got this book for my kids, ages 6 and 3. Both of them are really enjoying it and I've had repeated requests to please read it at bedtime. Neither have found it the least bit scary. In fact, one of the fun parts of the book has been finding the little mouse on every (or nearly every) page. Also, if you look closely, there is a hidden image of a Halloween cat with an arched back on every (or almost every) page. On the cover you can see it in the window of the house. The kids have enjoyed the hunt just as much as the story!
